Civil War Indicators

Indicator	Reporting 16-22 Apr 06
Ethno-sectarian identities are the overriding force driving decision-making	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- President Talabani accepted UIA nomination of Nuri al Maliki as PM candidate- In Baghdad, some Iraqis view Iraqi Police as partisan
Unrestrained, self-sustained sectarian strife across multiple provinces	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Ethno-sectarian casualties 152, lowest since Golden Mosque attack- Violence is concentrated in Baghdad
Ethno-sectarian mobilization	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Wide-spread influence and actions by militias not seen- Some intimidation tactics taking place in Baghdad
Forced Population movements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Pockets of families have been intimidated to leave some areas, but not in large numbers

Internally Displaced Persons

- Most IDP movement is within Baghdad or out of Baghdad to Southern Provinces
- Numerous motivations for Iraqi Displacement; some inconsistent with definition of IDP
- Four IDP camps confirmed by MNF as occupied
- No external assistance requested to date by Provincial Government – situation viewed as manageable

Leaflet Translation

- “The Mujahadeen will chop anyone who helps or supports or works with the Americans.”
- “Muslims are not allowed to work in the above mentioned jobs for their safety and their lives.”
- “Their goal is not to clean our areas, but to prevent Mujahadeen from planting IEDs ... those cleaners will be targeted”
